Berlin, Jan. 29. Our Elector has appointed the 10th of February for the expoſing to Sale the Goods taken on board the Spaniſh Ship. The Elector of Saxony is expected here very ſuddainly. Our Poliſh Letters inform us that the great Affair concerning a War with the Turks had been brought before the Dyet; that it was very eagerly promoted by many, who believe that the Crown of Poland has a great deal of reaſon to be jealous of the great preparations which the Grand Signior is making, and that they therefore ought to provide for their own ſecurity by making a firm Allyance with the Czar of Moſcovy, and by joyning their Forces with his for their common preſervation. The Ambaſſador that is ſaid to be coming from Moſcovy, was not arrived at Warſaw when our Letters came from thence, and it's probable the Dyet will not come to a reſolution in ſo important a matter till they hear what he comes to propoſe from the Czar, who it's ſaid will have a vaſt Army in the Field the next Summer, ſuch as will equal, if not exceed that of the Turks.

Hague, Feb. 14. Laſt Wedneſday the States of Holland met for the firſt time ſince their laſt receſs, and have been buſied about finding a fond to defray the extraordinary charges of the preſent year, as well as to pay off ſome old Arrears. The States-General thinking it neceſſary to fortifie their Frontier places, have reſolved that that work ſhall be immediately gone about, and that Moneys for defraying the charge thereof ſhall be forthwith raiſed.

Hague, Feb. 18. The States of Holland continue their Aſſembly, but it's believed they will ſeparate towards the end of this week, and Adjourn till the fifteenth
